

LITERACIES

Traditional LITERACIES
Concentrates on building the love of reading and storytelling as the center of the library program

+

Cutting Edge
Builds reading, writing, speaking and listening, plus leads digital literacy initiatives across the school, local and global community to build a transliterate culture.

INFORMATION

Traditional Information
Directs students and teachers to information in books, magazines, and reference sources.

+

Cutting Edge
Emphasizes the curation, consumption, and creation of high quality information as a part of the student's personal learning environment.

INQUIRY

Traditional Inquiry
Concentrates teaching on finding, locating and evaluating information for teacher's assignments.

+

Cutting Edge
Co-designs engaging learning experiences with the students and teachers that combine content and learning "how to learn" skills that extend inquiry into design thinking. Learners experience both individual and collaborative experiences.

INSTRUCTION

Traditional Instructional Designs
Direct teaching of library skills, research and the love of reading.

+

Cutting Edge
Co-designs and co-teaches engaging and well designed experiences across all content areas and demonstrates their impact.

INNOVATION

Traditional Innovation
Slow and purposeful adoption of experiences that combine content knowledge and learning how to learn skills.

+

Cutting Edge
Embracing change and constantly reinventing the Library Learning Commons serving as the school's incubator of new ideas. Facilitates and provides physical and virtual spaces and resources where students can learn to flourish in a changing world.

TECHNOLOGY

Traditional Technology
Encourages use of a few technologies.

+

Cutting Edge
Facilitates the use of the digital learning tools to redefine learning experiences that promote communication, collaboration, creativity, invention, problem-solving, critical thinking and efficiency.

EXPERTISE

Traditional Expertise and Leadership
Builds a traditional library program that serves patrons who request services and resources.

+

Cutting Edge
Contributes expertise to enhance teaching and learning across the school and in the community.

SERVICE

Traditional Service
Helpful when asked

+

Cutting Edge
Service initiatives to self, family, school, community, and beyond. Creates a mentored, inclusive and exciting environment for all adults and learners.

THE LIIIIITES MODEL:

Eight Ways to Shape and Illuminate the Contribution of School Library Learning Commons Professionals

Guide: <https://sites.google.com/view/liiiitesmodel/home>